

Butterfly Bank Flower Quiz

How many flowers & butterflies can you identify?

1. Which blue flower used to be widespread and is now endangered?
2. Which moth uses a yellow mattress filler as a food source for its caterpillar?
3. Which plant has leaves that look like avian feet and yellow flowers like slippers?
4. Which butterfly lays its eggs on Yellow Kidney Vetch?
5. Which yellow plant is poisonous if eaten?
6. Who shelters from the rain inside a blue bell?
7. Find two plants (one red, one yellow) which are named after, or associated with, a saint?
8. Which yellow plant is used as a present-day treatment for depression?
9. Which yellow plant has both a household pest and an avian predator in its name?
10. Which blue plant has its own bee?
11. Which blue plant's name exemplifies what our bank is trying to prevent?
12. Which yellow plant has leaves which resemble hoof prints?
13. Which white flower would make a pretty collar for an 18th century monarch?
14. Which yellow plant's flowers die each evening, so it has to grow new flowers each day?
15. To which purple plant is the Marbled White Butterfly particularly drawn?
16. Which low-lying purple plant do you associate with Snow White?
17. Which red plant is dioecious and what does the word mean?
18. Which yellow plant is the only food source for the caterpillars of two blue butterflies?
19. Which pink plant is clearly popular with ladybirds?
20. Which pink plant is used as a herbal remedy for livestock?
21. Which white plant has single flower heads with white rays and a yellow central disc?
22. Which white plant produces a bird's nest in winter?